The Court of Appeal overturned the Patents Court decision to strike out Glaxo Group's (GSK's) claim for an Arrow declaration in proceedings concerning a number of patents relating to dry powder inhaler formulations used in the treatment of respiratory diseases. The Court of Appeal held that GSK's claim for an Arrow declaration was sufficiently realistic to be allowed to proceed to trial.

Case date: 28 June 2018

Case number: [2018] EWCA Civ 1496

Court: Court of Appeal of England and Wales, Civil Division
