

Netherlands: G.D. SEARLE LLC. v. SANDOZ B.V., Provisions Judge of the District Court of The Hague

Kluwer Patent Blog
December 3, 2018

Bart van Wezenbeek (V.O. Patents & Trademarks)

Please refer to this post as: Bart van Wezenbeek, 'Netherlands: G.D. SEARLE LLC. v. SANDOZ B.V., Provisions Judge of the District Court of The Hague', Kluwer Patent Blog, December 3 2018, <http://patentblog.kluweriplaw.com/2018/12/03/netherlands-darunavir-provisions-judge-of-the-district-court-of-the-hague-eclinrbdha201813017-01-november-2018/>

---

The District Court of the Hague granted a provisional injunction against Sandoz' generic darunavir product. As it was already offered in the G-standard, price erosion was an imminent danger for which a provisional injunction was warranted, and the SPC appeared to be valid having been held so in the parallel procedure before the UK court.

Case number: C/09/561999
Case date: 01 November 2018

A full summary of this case has been published on Kluwer IP Law.