CA CI v. SC BU SA, High Court of Cassation and Justice (Inalta Curte de Casatie si Justitie), 14 March 2008

Iustina Grigordiadis · Sunday, April 18th, 2010 · Landmark European Patent Cases

The Supreme Court confirmed the Court of Appeal's decision that the certification of the status of creator of a technical achievement is an indispensable condition for monetary compensation of an employee by an enterprise. Since the plaintiffs have not requested or received any documents recognizing their status as creators of a technical achievement, their claim of monetary compensation has been rejected.
