Palaiochorinos S.A. v. Papanastasiou, Court of Appeal Thessaloniki (???????? ??????????????), 20 February 2009

Eleni Lappa (Drakopoulos Law Firm) · Monday, November 15th, 2010 · Landmark European Patent Cases

The Thessaloniki Court of Appeal held in nullity proceedings that the patent, covering ornamental light devices, lacked both novelty and inventive step. The patented subject matter was found to be known in the market and circulating in trade prior to the date of filing the application for patent protection.
