Trade Secrets Law in the USA: An overview in an extensive White Paper

Russell Beck · Wednesday, February 24th, 2016

2015 was a year of continued stage setting in trade secrets law.

With several developments on both the civil and criminal side, Russell Beck looks back at 2015 and analyzes noteworthy case law and legislation both in the U.S. and abroad, analyzing topics such as: the latest development regarding the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act, trade secrets developments in the European Union, and the impact of trade secrets on the new electronic discovery rules.

Read how these noteworthy advances and more will impact 2016 and beyond as trade secrets continues to move to the forefront of intellectual property law practice.
