Switzerland : Actelion v. ICOS, Federal Supreme Court of Switzerland, 1st Civil Law Chamber, BGE 143 III 284A_222/2016, 15 December 2016

Peter Ling (Lenz & Staehelin) · Friday, November 3rd, 2017

The “representative” registered with the Swiss Patent Register for the Swiss part of a European patent does not constitute a legal representative within the meaning of the Code of Civil Procedure. Consequently, court documents must not be served to such “representative”, but must be sent by the official channels of judicial assistance in civil matters to the foreign domicile or seat of the patent holder.
